

The process of reflection is an important aspect in the production of an artist's portfolio. Successful reflection enables self-awareness and personal growth. The artist statement should reveal the beliefs, emotions and feelings of the artist. Please consider the following:

- What is the artist's favorite part of this artwork? What was the least favorite?
- What was the inspiration for creating this piece of artwork?
- What would the artist change if he/she were to create it again? Why?
- What are some of the concepts the artist learned while creating this artwork?
- Did anything about this artwork surprise the artist?
- Describe what you did to create this artwork.
